

learn

innovate

WLE Centre Dissemination Event

11 December 2007 13.30 - 16.00pm
WLE Centre Institute of Education,
University of London, 20 Bedford
Way, London WC1H 0AL

The WLE centre invites all interested in work-based and professional learning to participate in a dissemination seminar based on a selection of projects carried out in and through the Centre.

The seminar, chaired by Prof Karen Evans, will provide an opportunity to hear about findings from three research and development activities, and to engage in discussion about implications for practice.

This event is the third in a series presenting findings from research and development projects funded by the WLE Centre. For further details about the individual projects, see the Centre website www.wlecentre.ac.uk.

Places are limited. Lunch will be available in the WLE Centre from 13.00pm.
RSVP Sarah Gelcich (s.gelcich@ioe.ac.uk)

The Centre for Excellence in Work-Based Learning for Education Professionals (WLE Centre)

Innovating Learning and Assessment in Work-based Learning

Sai Loo: Digital recording and peer/tutor review as analytic tools for post-compulsory teacher observation

Tim Kent: Innovative assessment approaches for work-based learning and widening participation

Christina Preston and John Cuthell: The learning of ICT advisers responsible for school teachers' ICT CPD

The speakers will present and discuss findings of their projects on aspects of innovation and development in work-based learning. In a concluding discussion, we will explore ways in which they can be used to inform policy and practice both within the Institute, and beyond in our associated organizations (employers, providers and professional bodies).

work

educate

wle

Work-based learning for education professionals

A Centre for Excellence at the Institute of Education